

Verano 2019

“INPUT” is the magic ingredient to language acquisition. How can you keep getting Spanish into your ears and eyeballs without me this summer? Never fear, Señora’s gotchu.

YOUTUBE playlists

I’ve updated the playlists on my account. Stream them or choose a song you like and see what the AutoPlay offers you. If you find a song you like, look up the lyrics or the lyric video. Learn to sing along! Download it! Play it in your car! Shock other people with how cultured you are!

Smartphone Apps

Set a daily or weekly goal for yourself and stick to it. DuoLingo is easy to click through when you’re bored anyway. Why not learn a little when you’re zoning out on your phone?

Podcasts

A few ideas:

- audiria
- Radio Ambulante
- News in Slow Spanish
- CoffeeBreak
- Just GOOGLE for other ideas!

SPOTIFY

There are TONS of curated Spanish playlists - whether you like POP, REGGAETON, ROCK, etc. Just click on the “Latin” Genre and get carried away! (¡Déjate llevar!)

Latin

BONUS - Señor Wooly’s ENTIRE CATALOG is on Spotify! You know you want it.

SOCIAL MEDIA/NEWS

Follow Spanish sources on Twitter, Instagram, SnapChat, and Facebook. You’ll see Spanish in your feed every day. Look into these accounts:

- Shakira
- J Balvin
- Daddy Yankee
- Pero Like
- BuzzFeed España
- BBCMundo
- CNN en Español
- A Spanish-speaking baseball player that you like. ex) Yadler Molina, José Quintana

THE LIBRARY

Go to the T-ville Public Library. Ask them for...

- AudioBooks
- DVDS
- CDs
- Bilingual children’s books
- Spanish versions of books you’ve already read

NETFLIX... oooooobviously.

Literally just type “Spanish” or “Argentina” or “Mexican” etc into the search bar Read the details to see what country it’s from and try to watch a variety. Use discretion to choose one that is appropriate for you/your family.

Some that I’ve seen or WANT to see →
